Public Participation during legislative sessions:

Members of the public may make comments and ask questions about items appearing on the “Consent Agenda” when they are presented. All other comments from the public will be taken during the period set aside for “Comments from the Public” at the end of the meeting.

To be recognized, a member of the public should raise his or her hand and wait to be recognized by the President. Comments and questions should be kept brief and to the point, and be directed to the President. Comments directed to other members of the public are not permitted.

The items on the “Legislative Agenda” have generally been discussed at earlier meetings and are now ready for final consideration among the commissioners before their vote. Unless noted otherwise on this agenda, members of the public will not be recognized during these deliberations.
