- I.

Call to Order - Pledge of Allegiance

- Commissioner Tad duPont opened a remote special budget meeting of the Commissioners of St. Michaels at 4:00 p.m. Also present were Commissioners Joyce Harrod, Michael Bibb, Jaime Windon, and David Breimhurst, Town Manager Jean Weisman, Legislative Clerk Suzanna Warnick, and Meeting Coordinator Kim Weller.

II. Agenda Amendments

III. Announcements from COSM and Staff

IV. Comments from the Public

V. FY2021 Budget Review

- Commissioner duPont opened the discussion of the current budget noting that it was his opinion that the Town's revenues were trending down due to the Covid 19 situation and he felt it was important to analyse the budget and understand it and look for ways to economize and plan for an uncertain future. Commissioner duPont then called upon Mrs. Weisman who provided an overview of the current budget.

VI. Comments from the Commissioners

- Mrs. Weisman asked if any of the Commissioners needed additional information on the budget prior to the next discussion. She said she had already emailed the Commissioners updated comparisons. Commissioner duPont said he needed to digest what he had heard and said this meeting had been a good start on the budget.

VII. Calendaring

- The Commissioners scheduled another budget discussion meeting for Friday, January 29, 2021 from 4-5:30 p.m.
